Celebrating 10 Years of Service

We are here to celebrate 10 years of

Doing What We Can

to fulfill the mission of Everyman Foundation

Everyman

| Thou Art That

Our Mission

To help ease the suffering and bring joy to the children and families of Panama who are suffering from:

Extreme poverty

Severe physical handicaps

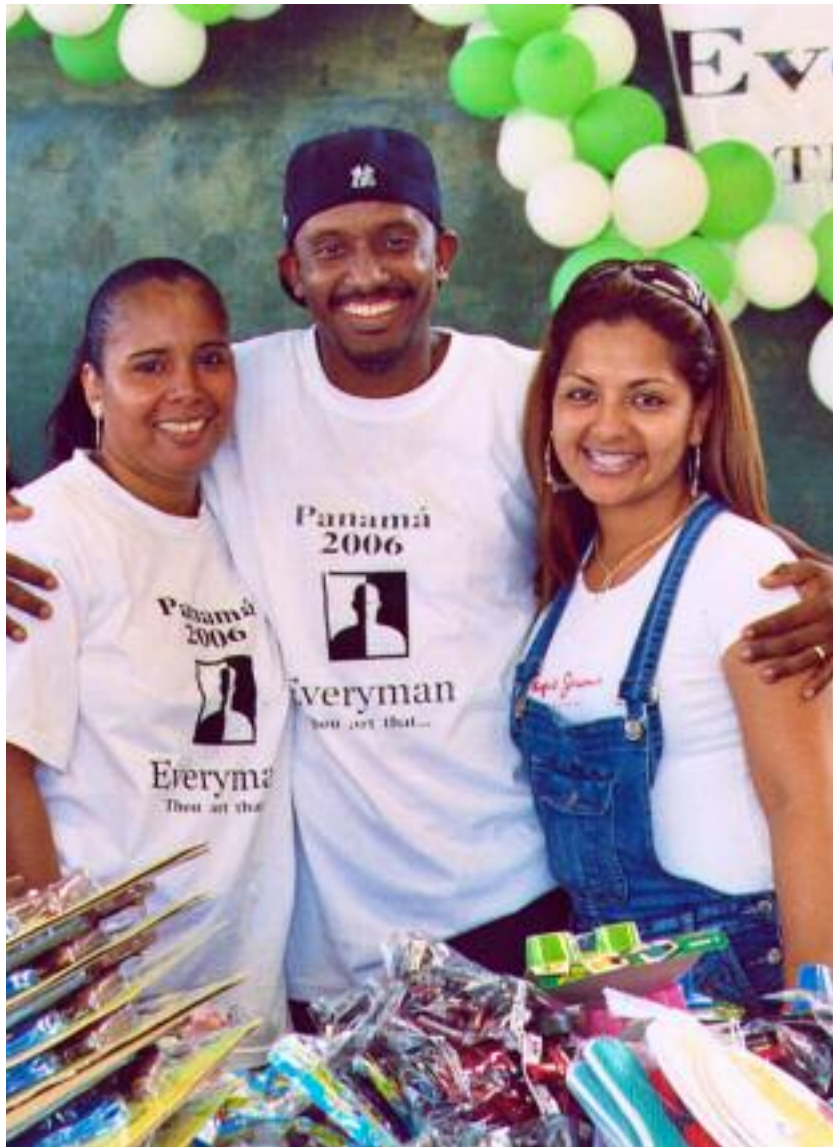

Severe mental handicaps

Those who are truly “dispossessed” of any form of normal life

Our Inspiration

Our mission is inspired by the deep truth of these three words:

Thou Art That

These words mean:

I am you and you are me.
We are all One.

Everyman

The Eyes of Love

When you look at others through
the eyes of love

You do not see differences

You see only the One

Words that Inspire Us

After 10 years of serving the people of Panama, we remain deeply inspired by the words of Edward Everett Hale spoken around 1860:

“I am only one,
But still I am one.
I cannot do everything,
But still I can do something;

And because
I cannot do everything
I will not refuse to do the something that I can do.”

Doing What We Can

At Everyman Foundation, we say it this way:

Just because you can't help everyone
It doesn't mean you can't help someone.
If everyone helped who they could
It would be enough.

That's why we call our programs:

"Doing What We Can"

Words that Inspire Us

We also remain deeply inspired by Mother Teresa who said:

"We may not be able to give much but we can always give the joy that springs from a heart that is in love with God.

All over the world people are hungry and thirsty For God's love.

We meet that hunger by spreading joy.

Our Solution

About her life in Calcutta serving
"the poorest of the poor"

Mother Teresa also said;

"The Lord has willed me where I am.
He will offer me a solution."

The Lord has offered us Everyman Foundation.

Doing What We Can is our solution.

Entering Our Second Decade In Panama

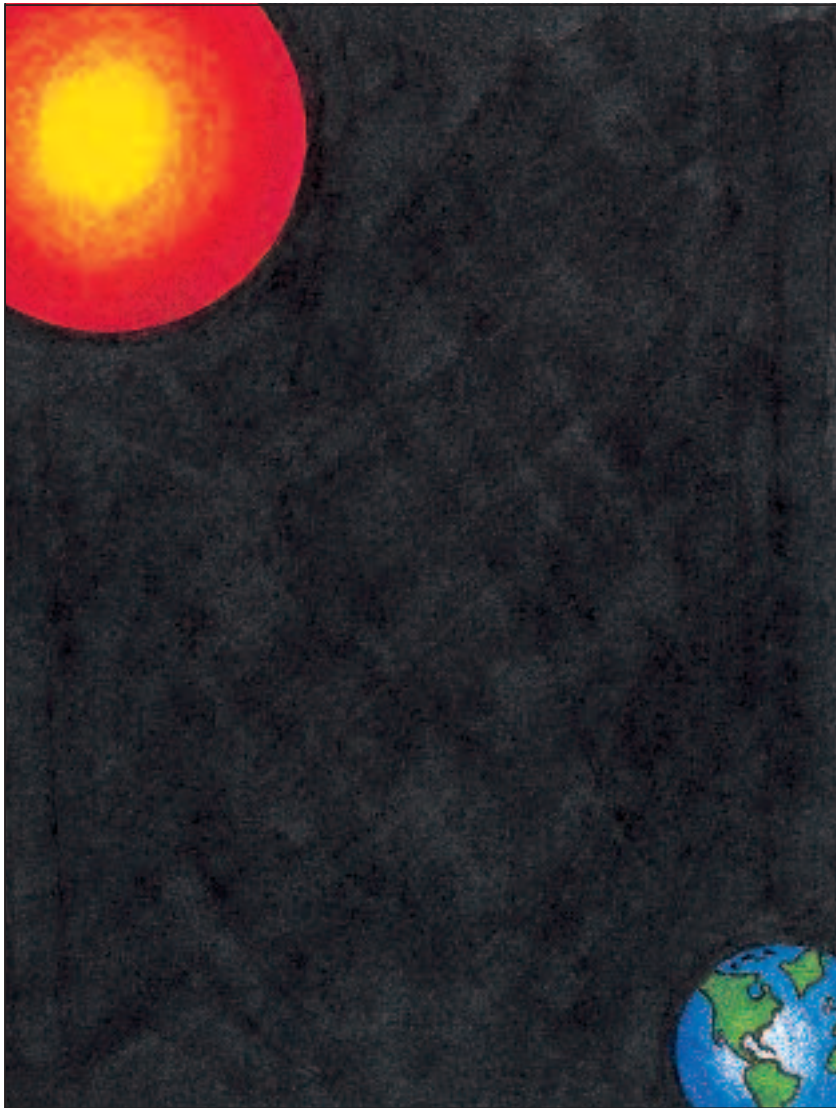

As we enter the second decade of Everyman Foundation in Panama, let us honor Mother Teresa's memory by recommitting ourselves:

To spreading joy, to serving the "dispossessed" people of Panama

To go to work amongst the "dispossessed" who may be "hungry and thirsty for God's love."

To continue:

DOING WHAT WE CAN

Everyman

| Thou Art That

Let's Recommit Ourselves

To recommit ourselves to look at others
with eyes of love

To make our lives a devotional

To the love of every man

To the love of God

Which to me are

ONE

We Can Give Love

When we think we have nothing we can give please remember this:

We can always give love
Love is not dependent on anything

It doesn't matter what you have
If you don't have a heart filled with love
You have nothing

It doesn't matter how little you have
If your heart is filled with love
You have the key to happiness
You are richer than the richest
Because a heart filled with love is the greatest treasure a human being can possess.

The River of Love

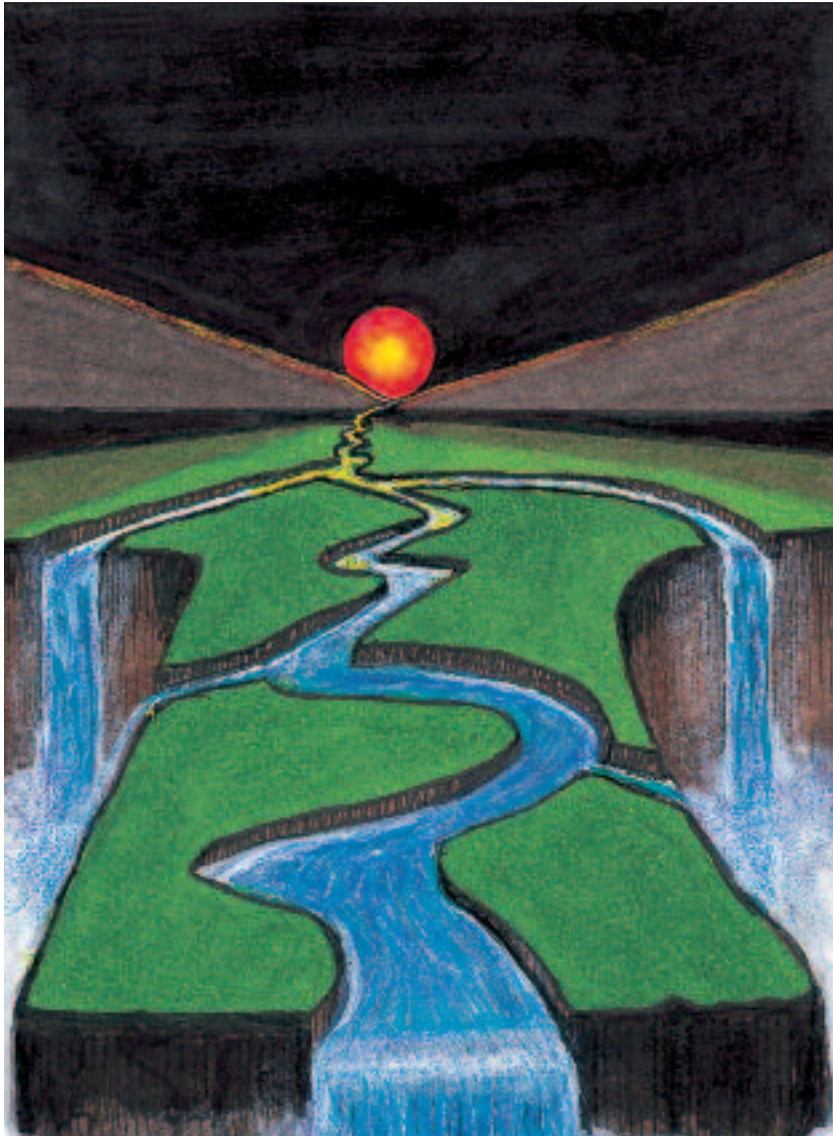

A final thought on love:

Would everyone please close their eyes

Be silent for a moment

Become aware of the love
Moving, flowing, in this room

This love is real
There is a river of love
Flowing through life
Flowing through each of us
Flowing through our hearts
This river of love has been flowing
Since time began
